DETAILED ACTION

Examiner's Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Santosh Chari on September 14, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 69, delete "66" and insert --68--.

Claim 71, line 1, delete "said first portion of".

Claim 95, delete "94" and insert --92--.

Claim 96, line 2, delete "said first portion of".

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 59-71, 84, 86-92, and 94-96 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claims 59 and 84 are directed to rechargeable cells that are made by mixing components (zinc material, alkaline electrolyte, organic surfactant, indium compound(s), and gelling agent) in a specific order. The closest prior art to these claims is Daniel-Ivad et al., 5,626,988. In this reference, alkaline electrolyte is added to the zinc material after indium sulfate and a surfactant are added. However, the instant claims recite that the surfactant is added after the alkaline electrolyte and that the indium compound(s) are added in an alkaline environment. These limitations are considered to distinguish over the '988 patent, as evidenced by Tables 1-5 of the instant specification. The control batteries in these tables (batteries A, J, etc.) are made by the method according the '988 patent. The batteries made by the methods recited in claims 59 and 84 perform unexpectedly better than the control batteries. See, for example, batteries B, D, E, G, and H of Table 1. As such, the data in the Tables is sufficient to distinguish the claims over the '988 patent.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
